LawBase Client South Carolina Attorney General Upgrades to Version 12

October 19, 2011 – Denver-based Synaptec Software, Inc. announced today that the South Carolina Office of the Attorney General has successfully implemented the newest version of LawBase case management software. The upgrade progressed quickly. Ms. Sandee Sprang of the Office of the Attorney General says, “As always, the support provided by Synaptec Software is first class.” The transition went smoothly and the users are incredibly satisfied with the upgraded version, which includes new features such as a redesigned user interface and additional reporting and calendaring capabilities.

The South Carolina Office of the Attorney General first implemented LawBase in 1999. As they’ve upgraded through versions, they’ve been appreciative that all of the agency’s information has been brought forward without the need for a manual conversion. They’ve been able to take advantage of regular updates to LawBase and employ the latest advances in legal technology.

A number of LawBase clients have successfully upgraded to the latest version of LawBase legal case and matter management software in recent months. LawBase is a powerful and customizable case management solution that allows for flexibility without sacrificing functionality.
